JESUS

is able,
now and forever,
to save ... all
who come to God through Him because
He lives forever
to pray for them.

7: 25

Your Last Prayer?

Have you ever read the last verse of Psalm 72?

This is what it says:

"The prayers of David, the son of Jesse, are ended"

Of course, these very same words will be spoken about you and me one day too.

I wonder what your last prayer (and mine) will be?

But I can't help reading these words and thinking, as Hebrews 7.25 (see left) so wonderfully encourages us to:

But the prayers of Jesus, the Son of God, are far from ended!

So let's do all the praying we can – while we can!

And let's join the One who was praying long before we started – and will be praying long after we finish.

Where would any of us be without His prayers?

In "Pray In The Spirit", Arthur Wallace wrote:

If a man is summoned into the king's palace to receive some decoration, the royal summons is the right to enter the king's presence. It takes him past the sentries and officers of the guard who would otherwise debar him from the palace. But having gained entry he would be at a loss to find his way into the sovereign's presence if left to himself in that labyrinth of corridors. He needs a palace attendant to conduct him personally to the audience chamber. The work of Christ provides us with the royal summons and constitutes our right of entry, but the indwelling Spirit is also needed to conduct us into God's presence. It is His work to make access to God's presence a reality; to bring us the deep conviction that we are not talking into the air when we pray, but communing face to face with a loving heavenly Father. Join us together as we enter the King's presence and make our requests known before His throne. Thank you all for joining us in this important exercise.
